

1 Cost of Stall:

£22/4ft table OR £44 for 2 4ft tables

PLEASE endeavour to dress your stall with long table cloths to create a beautiful ambience and to hide the clutter we are likely to have under our tables!

2 Booking terms:

Paid full on booking and no refunds will be issued within 1 week of the event if you can't attend. If I cancel the event for unforeseen circumstances, I will return all booking fees to you.

3 Opening times:

10am - 4pm

4 Loading/set up time:

Arrive any time after 8am and PLEASE AIM TO BE READY for 9.45am at the latest so we can gather together and create a shared intention, leading on to an opening ceremony at 10am.

5 Closing down time:

Please only pack down after 4pm, so the energy of the gathering is not disturbed while other people are still in attendance.

6 Insurance needed:

Public liability insurance suitable for your trade. Please have a copy of your insurance on show on your stall and provide me with a copy of the certificate before the event.

7 Plug sockets:

These are placed in the corner of the venue, so require long extension leads. Therefore if you really need to have electricity, please bring your own extension leads and be prepared with tape to use to avoid tripping hazards! I will aim to place you nearest to the available sockets if you note this at time of booking.

8 Charges for readings and healing sessions: **Please note a change******

Please agree to charging a minimum of £1/minute, i.e. £20/20 minutes, or £30/half an hour.

9 Candles and incense:

We are allowed incense but PLEASE be mindful of the stalls around you - let us work as a team and allow a gentle aroma to welcome and relax clients but with common sense, so we can also breathe! NO lit candles please - LED ones all the way :)

10 Parking:

We are lucky to have parking on the Royal Welsh Show Ground, and so I ask that you unload in the parking outside the school hall, and when you are finished, please move your vehicle to the parking, situated outside of the venue. Turn right out of the school gates, and look for the next gateway, marked with rainbow flags and you will find plenty of space for you to park.

Please read through and write to me any questions you have. Signing your booking form counts towards reading and agreeing to these terms. Thank you for your help and cooperation for a wonderful day of healing and networking for all involved.

I reserve the right to update and amend the details included in these terms as necessary and will send you the updated version as and when this happens.
